FSC On Line Store

Please check out the Flatlander website for your FSC shirts, hats and other memorabilia. We have a link to Corporate Casuals that can supply some really nice clothing with the Flatlander logo direct from their factory. Larry Lanham has been working very hard to get this setup for the club.

Trip to Alpine in July

Mike Moore is organizing a trip to Alpine on the weekend of July 8th. Some of you may know (I certainly didn't) that Alpine has a nightclub named Railroad Blues. The band Checkpoint will be performing there that night. The Alpine Inn has rooms for $40 a night so we don't have to drive home after the show. I've been told that Railroad Blues is "a place the Flatlanders can really enjoy".
Call Mike Moore for more details.

Mummers in August?

Keep an eye on your newsletter for the Summer Mummers date. Kie is trying to get a Saturday night in early August for this annual event.

Raft Trip to New Braunfels

Larry Lanham is organizing a trip to the San Antonio area. His plan is to raft the Guadalupe river on Saturday June 24th. Then go to the historic Greune Hall that night to see Jerry Jeff Walker and Two Tons of Steel (opening act for George Strait). He is reserving tubes for the river at $13 each. There is a camp ground that is $25 per person for two nights including electricity, shower and tube. There are also several local hotels that range from $55 to $150 a night. He also has a reservation for 3 rooms at Greun Apple Inn which is a nice B&B for between $150 and $200 a night including breakfast for two people. Give him a call for more details or to take a reservation.
